|---|---|
| Name of the Activity: | One Day Mandatory Workshop on Report Writing - 2025 |
| Date of the Activity: | 4 th October, 2025 |
| Venue: | Conclave Centre |
| Number of Participants: | CST (58), CSBS (39) Total: 97 |
| Name of the Faculty Coordinator (s): | Dr. Tejaswita Mishra, Dr. Suchitra Agrawal |
| Brief Description of the Activity Conducted: | The workshop was dedicated to Report Writing, where students were introduced to the fundamentals of academic writing, structure, formatting, and presentation of reports. The workshop emphasized the importance of clarity, coherence, and professional standards in technical communication. Practical tips and examples were provided to help students develop effective writing skills necessary for their academic and professional careers. The workshop for the first-year students featured an engaging session by Ms. Pritha Singh Rajawat. The Report Writing session introduced students to the essentials of preparing professional and academic reports. It covered the meaning and purpose of reports as structured, factual, and formal documents that aim to inform, analyze, and recommend. Students learned about the key characteristics of a good report, including clarity, objectivity, accuracy, logical flow, conciseness, evidence-based support, proper referencing, and a professional tone. The importance of report writing was emphasized in the context of academics, business, science, and decision-making. The workshop explained the standard structure of a report, consisting of front matter such as the title page and abstract, the main body including introduction, methodology, findings, and discussion, and back matter such as conclusion, recommendations, references, and appendices. The steps in report writing were outlined, from drafting the title page and abstract to developing the introduction, literature review, methodology, results, and discussion, followed by conclusions and proper referencing. Attention was given to writing style, stressing the need for formal, clear, and concise language supported by facts, figures, and visuals. Students were also introduced to the concepts of logical analysis, rough and final drafts, and the different types of reports such as technical, popular, academic, business, research articles, and monographs. Common mistakes like inserting personal opinions, poor grammar, and irrelevant details were highlighted along with tips for effective report writing. The session included the following activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Comparing incomplete and complete reports to illustrate the importance of structure, data, and meaningful recommendations.2. Presenting an oral report on different technical/business titles in groups. |
| Outcome of the Activity: | Students learnt the following points through the workshop conduction: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Importance of Report Writing2. Types of Reports3. Structure and Format of different reports4. Case Study Analysis via Presentation |
