ACTIVITY REPORT

Title of Activity:	Guru Purnima Performance
Date:	21 st July 2024
Venue:	Conclave Centre
Number of Participants:	100
Organised by:	MITS-DU
Faculty Coordinators:	Dr. Mir Shahnawaz Ahmad Mr. Arun Kumar
Objectives of the Activity:	To create an environment of gratitude and celebration through music and art on the auspicious occasion of Guru Purnima.
Brief Description of the Activity:	The club members opened the morning with a soul-stirring group rendition of a classical raga, paying homage to the rich heritage of Indian music. This was followed by a series of individual and duet performances, where vocalists and instrumentalists from Bandish brought a perfect blend of tradition and contemporary music to the stage. A particularly captivating moment was a fusion medley featuring tabla, and guitar, which seamlessly blended classical and modern styles, leaving the audience spellbound. The club's vocalists delivered heartfelt renditions of devotional songs and contemporary tracks, each piece carefully chosen to reflect the spirit of Guru Purnima. Adding to the vibrancy, Bandish's choir presented a beautifully synchronized performance, showcasing the harmony and camaraderie among the club members. The percussion team further energized the event with rhythmic beats that had the audience clapping along in appreciation. Every performance demonstrated the dedication and hours of practice the club members had invested, reflecting their passion for music and respect for their mentors.
Outcomes of the Activity:	The event fostered a deeper sense of respect and gratitude among students for their teachers. The performances showcased the diverse musical talents within Bandish, inspiring participants to explore and appreciate Indian classical music. Guru Purnima provided a platform for students to connect emotionally with their mentors, strengthening the teacher-student relationship.
