Brief Description:

The orientation program for the event commenced with the class coordinator Dr. Anshu Chaturvedi's invitation to Dr. Manish Dixit, HoD, CSE to address the students. He informed the students about the department and asked them to actively search the good project. Next Dr. R. S. Jadon discussed about the trainings and campus placement procedures. He also emphasized that the students should attend online classes regularly and must interact with their faculty mentor from Institute during these classes. Thereafter, Dr. Anshu Chaturvedi, outlined the scheme structure, the importance of COs and their feedbacks with the students, informed them about the group division and faculty mentor of each group. She also shared the information about submitting FPR regularly and in timely manner. She also sorted out certain of their queries, followed by Prof. Parul Saxena who talked about the faculty feedback system.

In the end, the class coordinator, once again asked the students to keep their morals high and put their best effort for their studies. The session ended with Vote of Thanks by Dr. Anshu Chaturvedi.
