

Date: 17/04/2023

Report of Archikalaa event organized by Creative Architects Club

Type of activity:	Workshop, Exhibition and cultural Event
Title of the activity:	ARCHIKALA
Date and duration of activity:	15-04-2023, 16-04-2023
Number of Participants:	68
Resource Person:	Ar. Tapas Upadhyay- Aaguar Studio, Bhopal
Objectives of the event:	"Archi Kalaa" is an exciting event organized by the Creative Architects Club aimed for providing a platform for students to interact with eminent architects and delegates from renowned firms. The event offers opportunities for internships, cultural events, networking, and will also showcase students' academic and competition paneling.
Description of the event:	"Archi Kalaa," a thrilling event organized by the Architecture Department! This event is designed to create a platform for students to connect and engage with eminent architects and delegates from renowned firms. Archi Kalaa presents a multitude of opportunities, including internships, cultural events, and networking sessions. It is a unique chance for students to interact with industry professionals, gain valuable insights, and expand their professional network. In addition to the exciting networking opportunities, Archi Kalaa will also showcase the academic and competition achievements of our talented students. Prepare to be amazed as you witness their outstanding work on display through captivating panel presentations.

Some Glimpse of the event

A group photo with all the faculty members with Aagaur Studio

A group photo with all the faculty members Along with organizing committee

Workshop and musical event by with Aagaur Studio