Outcomes of the Event: The event “Mere Khayal Se” successfully inspired and captivated the student audience through powerful performances by guest artists Amar Saxena and Jitendra Tiwari. The audience gained a deeper appreciation for the art of storytelling and poetry, which fostered a sense of emotional connection and cultural awareness among them. Many students expressed feeling motivated to explore their own creative talents and engage more actively in similar artistic events in the future.

The event thus achieved its goal of creating a meaningful impact on students’ perspectives, encouraging them to value artistic expression as a means of personal and emotional development.

The event is successfully completed
