Report

Title of the Programme : Orientation Program of 7th Semester Students, MAC
Date and Time : 28/07/2025, 12:00 Noon
Venue : J125 (101)
Number of Participants : 34 (enclosed).

Programme Objective:

1. To welcome students to the 7th semester, acknowledging their academic journey and encouraging active engagement with new responsibilities and opportunities.
2. To discuss the academic calendar, introduce the scheme and syllabus, and emphasize the importance of Outcome-Based Education (OBE)—what it is, why it matters, and how it works.
3. To brief students on the evaluation system, including rules and regulations of the examination process, credit-based assessments, and project work.
4. To highlight the Professional Development component, including Professional Skills & Competencies and their relevance in shaping future-ready graduates.
5. To provide information on open category courses offered through MITS-DU MOOCs, with emphasis on SWAYAM/NPTEL registration for Discipline Elective (DE) courses and credit transfer policy.
6. To stress the importance of communication skills in professional development, particularly for engineering graduates.
7. To guide students on remedial, special, and additional classes, support for placement, higher education, and preparation for competitive exams and coding platforms.

Programme Outcomes: The following outcomes were taken up from the orientation program:

1. Students felt motivated and better oriented for the academic and professional demands of the 7th semester.
2. Students gained clarity on institutional goals through the discussion of expected learning outcomes under OBE.
3. Students became familiar with the revised scheme, syllabus, and evaluation methods.
4. The process of SWAYAM/NPTEL registration and credit transfer was clearly explained, encouraging active participation.
5. The session reinforced the importance of communication skills, class attendance, and timely semester registration.
6. Students received valuable information on placement preparation, competitive exams, and skill development platforms.
