

Admission 2022-23

B.Tech. in Information Technology

Information Technology (IT) engineering is a popular domain chosen by engineering aspirants to pursue a promising career. IT is the use of electronic equipment, especially computers to create, process, store, retrieve and exchange all kinds of Data and Information.

Scope of Information Technology

With the initialization of "Digital India", the demand of Information Technology has increased tremendously. To meet the growing demands of societal needs Information Technology has played a crucial role and retained its supremacy in the industry. IT has transformed many aspects of business, social interaction, healthcare, education and many more.

Job Opportunities in IT

Students will find the following job titles after completion of their course:

- Software Engineer
- Application Developer
- System Analyst
- Database administrator
- Data Engineer
- Programmer
- Database Manager
- Web Developer and Designer
- Information Security Analyst
- Network Engineer
- Virtual reality engineer

Admission Enquiry

For admission and Department related queries, please refer to the Institute website:

<http://mitsgwalior.in/admissionmits.php>

Departmental admission enquiry: 7999622309